

Giving

I'll give to you and you'll give to me,
Friendship, respect, and kindness then
we'll see...

That the whole wide world, a better place
will be,
For the friendship and caring in our hearts!

We'll work each day to be sharing,

Instead of tearing this or that apart.

We'll work each day to be caring.

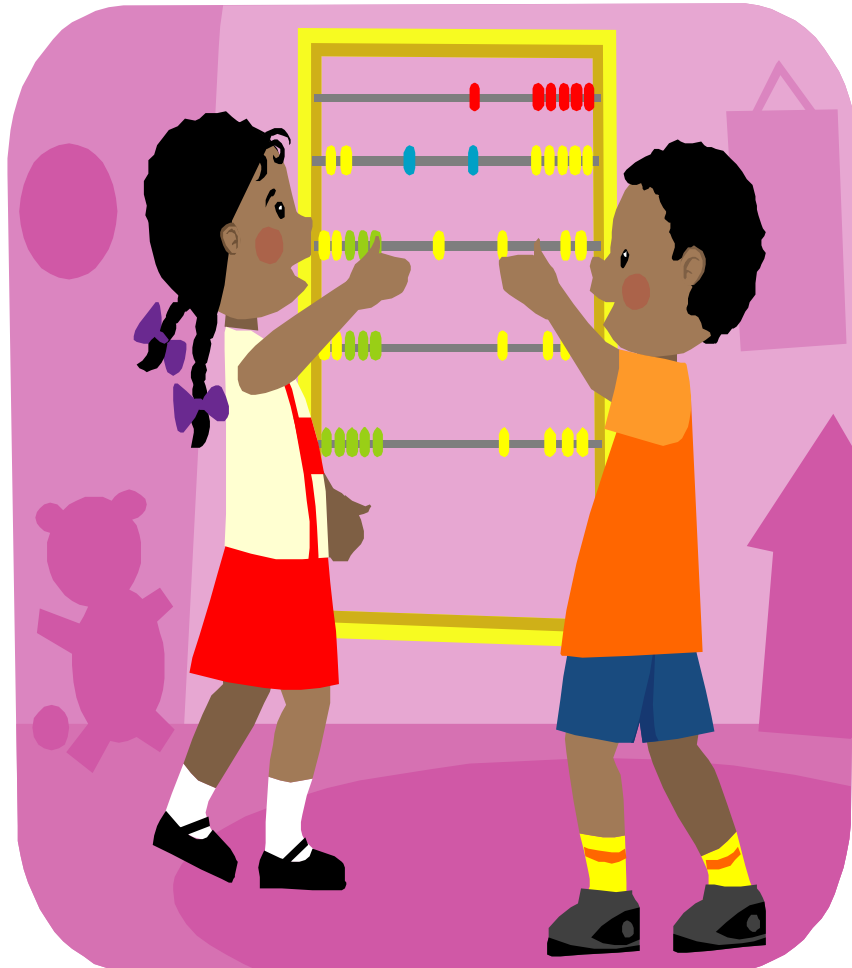

We'll listen, learn, and smile a lot and
help others begin to start...

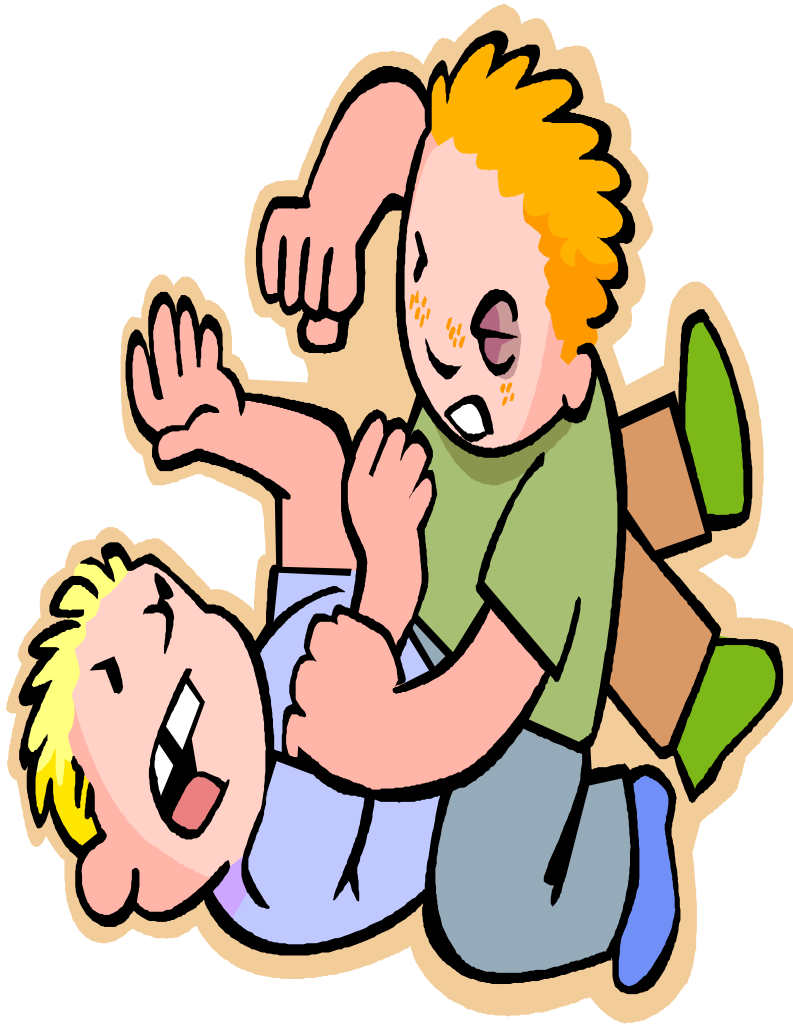

To give to you and to give to me,
Friendship, respect, and kindness then
we'll see...

That the whole wide world, a better place
will be,
For the friendship and caring in our hearts!

We'll work each day to be sharing,

Instead of tearing this or that apart.

We'll work each day to be caring.

We'll listen, learn, and smile a lot and
help others begin to start...

To give to you and to give to me,
Friendship, respect, and kindness then
we'll see...

That the whole wide world, a better place
will be,
For the friendship and caring in our hearts!
For the friendship and caring in our hearts!
For the friendship and caring in our hearts!
